

PEACE TREATY ABOLISHES CONSCRIPTION SYSTEM IN GERMANY

armies and their provocation to warfare.

The Council has already adopted the naval terms of the treaty except for a few reserved provisions, which are being discussed to-day.

The progress that has been made with the work of framing the peace treaty insures the completion of the task by March 20. The first rough draft will be in readiness when President Wilson arrives in France on Thursday, and the revision will be concluded before the 20th.

It is the present purpose of the Peace Conference to call the German to Versailles soon after March 20, probably from March 21 to March 25. The document then will be delivered to the German delegates and in case they are not prepared to sign it at once they will be given the opportunity to return to Germany to consider it and return for the formal signing at Versailles.

This plan obviates the necessity of holding sessions for debate at Versailles and restricts the functions to be conducted with the Germans to the delivery of the document and their return for its signature or such other action as they desire to take.

VON BERNSTORF NOT TO BE A GERMAN DELEGATE.
It is known definitely that Count von Bernstorff, former German Ambassador to the United States, will not be one of the German delegates at Versailles.

The presence of Premier Lloyd George in Paris is permitting of daily conferences of the Premiers of the Powers as a sort of steering committee to direct the course of the main work of the conference. The session yesterday was attended by Premiers Clemenceau and Lloyd George and Col. E. M. House, representing President Wilson. When President Wilson arrives it is expected that these conferences of the Government heads will gradually take the place of the council of the great powers, which experience has shown to give too much time to speeches. The conferences of the Premiers, on the other hand, are providing an effective executive organization for the rapid discharge of business. This rapidly insures the drafting of the peace within the limit fixed, a week from next Thursday.

U. S. WON'T RUN BOATS TIED UP BY PORT STRIKE HERE

Agreement Will Be Reached Soon, Is View Expressed in Washington.

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Operation by the Government of boats tied up in New York harbor by a strike of harbor workers is not being considered. It was announced to-day at the Department of Labor. After conferences with James R. Hughes, Federal Conciliator, officials said they were hopeful that an agreement would be reached shortly.

Employees on army and navy boats are negotiating with the two departments for terms similar to those granted by the Railroad Administration and also demanded by employees on private boats.

New York's harbor strike to-day showed signs of being renewed by another walkout of the workers employed on Railroad Administration tugs.

The probable action was forecast this afternoon by Thomas L. Delehanty, President of the Marine Workers' Affiliation, when he announced after the union leaders had protested to the Reading Railroad that it was violating its agreement with the strikers by using its tugs on private work, the Reading, it was reported, answered by calling in the captains of their craft and ordering them to tie up.

When the Captains of the tugs began calling up union headquarters, Delehanty declared that "it looks like another pull."

That the unions had come to a possible disagreement with the Railroad Administration was borne out by the request of A. J. Stone, Federal Director of the Erie, who has been speaking for the Railroad Administration, that the union leaders meet with the Federal managers this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

The unions, which went into conference at 2 o'clock, announced they would empower Delehanty, William A. Maher and Paul Vaccarella to call another strike in case no agreement with the Railroad Administration is reached.

Disposal of the city's harbor strike will not be affected if the harbor strike is renewed. The unions agreed at a conference with Mayor Hylan this morning to man two tugs for this work, the only stipulation made by them being that each tug should carry a banner telling of the concession by the strikers.

BERLIN REDS FIGHT ON AGAINST ODDS; MANY EXECUTED

Spartanists Torture and Murder Civilians—Slay Red Cross Patients.

BERLIN, Monday, March 10. (Associated Press.) Government troops were busy to-day in driving Spartan bands from various sections of Berlin, and in preparing for a determined effort against the Spartan stronghold of Lichtenberg, a suburb to the east of the city. The Spartanists are reported to have large depots of weapons and ammunition in Lichtenberg.

Government troops sent to Lichtenberg Sunday to protect the post-office and police station were annihilated by the Spartanists.

All the soldiers and police officials who were not killed during the fighting for the post-office and police station or who did not escape from the buildings were murdered by the Spartanists. Many were tortured and killed in the streets. At least one woman was among the victims of the Spartanists. The police archives in Lichtenberg were burned and $6,000 marks were stolen from the post-office.

No attempt has yet been made to ascertain the number of persons killed in the present uprising, but the number is believed to exceed 150.

Reports of Spartan atrocities continue to pour in and resulted to-day in the issuance of an order by Herr Noske, the Minister of Defense, that all found opposing the Government troops with weapons would be shot immediately. Many Spartanists were taken prisoner during the forenoon and summary executions began at once, the order of Herr Noske being welcomed by the embittered Government forces.

Armed civilians stopped a Red Cross ambulance to-day and killed and wounded all the people in it. Another band of Spartanists clubbed two soldiers to death with the butts of their guns and killed a householder who attempted to interfere.

Although the Independent Socialist leaders protest that they are not connected with the insurrection, the Independent organs have been attacking the Government with bitter invectives and endeavoring to stir up the people against the Government and the Government troops.

The Government military commanders anticipate that it will take at least two days of steady fighting to break the Spartan resistance in the eastern part of Berlin and to capture Lichtenberg and the suburbs of Köpenick, Weissensee and Himmelsburg, all on the eastern outskirts of Berlin.

The Communists, with help from the criminal and hoodlum elements, continue to offer stout opposition and the Government troops naturally are making slow progress in the street fighting. They are taking no prisoners.

One daring Spartan band last night succeeded in taking a machine gun into a house opposite the barracks of the guard regiment on Friedrichstrasse, a short distance north of Unter-den-Linden. From this point of vantage they bombarded the barracks. Another squad penetrated into the newspaper district and threw hand grenades into the courtyard of the building occupied by the semi-official Wolff Bureau.

The order calling off the general strike was obeyed only in part to-day. Nearly all the small establishments and a number of the big plants resumed work with full force; but workmen in the factories, dominated by radicals, declared they would not return to work until the Government troops were withdrawn from Berlin.

A woman soldier in the Spartan ranks who was captured by the Government troops is declared to have confessed participation in more than twenty killings. The Spartanists also are accused of using airplanes for attacks on peaceable citizens. The bomb which was dropped on a crowd in Bulowplatz is said to have been thrown by a Spartan aviator.

ZURICH, March 11.—Leipzig has been captured by Government troops, which inflicted a severe defeat on the Spartanists. It was reported in a dispatch received from Berlin to-day. The recent street fighting in Berlin has resulted in the death of 142 non-combatants and a property loss of $159,000,000, according to a report made by a bourgeois committee, other Berlin dispatches stated.

Portugal Hales State of Siege.
LISBON, March 11.—The state of siege has been raised in Portugal. It was officially announced to-day. This action of the Government formally ends the monarchist revolution, although the monarchists were completely defeated several weeks ago.

HEROES OF 27TH'S AMMUNITION TRAIN HOME TO-DAY

LT. COL. WALTER L. BELL, MAJ. PERCIVAL E. NAGEL, CAPT. CHAPLAIN R. K. TUCKER

WON'T OVERLOAD THE LEVIATHAN, SAYS GEN. HINES

who came home on the Leviathan with the 27th Division saw the order and knows of the work which has been outlined to carry it out.

Gen. Hines's statement that the Embarkation service does not contemplate loading more than 10,500 enlisted men and officers per trip on the Leviathan carried the suggestion that there may be a division of authority in Washington over the conduct of the gigantic transport. The Leviathan is still in port and the work of enlarging her carrying capacity to admit of stuffing 15,000 men into space that is crowded by 10,500 is in progress.

When the Leviathan left Brest on Feb. 26 she was under orders to reach Hoboken on March 6 and to start on the return trip to Brest on March 10. The orders were posted on the bulletin board with the information that, owing to the short stay at Hoboken, no shore leave would be issued to anybody.

Shortly after the Leviathan left Brest the order to change her carrying capacity to accommodate 15,000 men was received by wireless. The original order was removed from the bulletin board and another order, stating that the ship would probably be in port for ten days and that leave would be granted was substituted. The news that the Leviathan was to carry 15,000 men on her next trip was circulated all over the ship.

The Embarkation Service, of which Gen. Hines is the head, is nominally in supreme control of all troop transports and pays all the bills. Gen. Hines's assurance that the Leviathan's capacity is not to be increased, issued in the face of the fact that the Navy Department has ordered the increase and the necessary alterations are being made, appears to call for a get-together movement on the part of the Embarkation Service and the Navy Department.

The Evening World has received from F. W. Seward, editor of Seward's Journal, a coal trade weekly, the following letter concerning the project of overloading the Leviathan. Mr. Seward is a transportation expert.

"Editor Evening World: I am much interested in your article protesting against the carrying of 15,000 men on the Leviathan. Surely, that seems to be taking a chance.

"Would it not be in order to refer to the disaster to the steamer Sultana at the close of the Civil War? That was one of the greatest disasters of the entire conflict and it occurred on an inland river, not on the open sea. "At the close of hostilities there is an inevitable tendency towards the relaxation of discipline and, I think, this should be taken into consideration as well as the theoretical capacity of a boat."

[The Sultana disaster, referred to by Mr. Seward, occurred on April 27, 1865, on the Mississippi River, about six miles north of Memphis, Tenn. The Government had chartered the Sultana, a large river steamer, for the transportation of Federal troops from the Far South to their homes. She carried 2,300 men when she left Memphis for St. Louis on her last voyage. The boat was packed to the rails.

[The boilers exploded under the pressure of steam needed to propel the heavily laden boat and the wreck caught fire. About 1,750 men were burned to death or drowned. The last reunion of the survivors of the Sultana was held

German Police Dogs Captured By 27th on Hindenburg Line

"Hans" Hindenburg, Message Carrier for U. S. Army After Being Taken Captive, Here

Hindenburg has been captured at last!

And here are some facts about him that it is safe to predict are not generally known:

His age is just a little more than four years, and he weighs 110 pounds. His first name is Hans, and his captor has refused an offer of $1,000 for him, which is a pretty high figure, even in these days, when German relics are in great demand.

But Hans Hindenburg is not the former General, nor even a relative. He's just a giant German police dog who helped to carry messages between the lines.

He was captured with his sister while the boys of the 27th were attacking the Hindenburg tunnel the latter part of September. The two dogs put up a terrific fight and tore the uniforms of Sergeant Weston before they were subdued.

Following their capture, they were put to work carrying messages for the American Army. Hans's sister escaped. Hans, however, seemed to prefer the American trenches, and was wounded once and gassed twice while carrying information back to headquarters.

Seventeen women's organizations were represented at the meeting of the Board of Aldermen to listen to the arguments.

Resolved: That the Committee on General Welfare be hereby instructed to arrange an immediate conference with members of the board of Education, with a view to securing such action as will put the proper school lunch system into operation promptly and expeditiously, and that this Board further requests the Board of Education to defer action on the adoption of such school lunch plans until such conference with the committee on general welfare has been had."

HAD OWN BABY IN ARMS, BUT CARED FOR ANOTHER

Woman Waited Long for Returning Mother. Then Turned Abandoned Child Over to Police.

Mrs. Catherine Gizowski was waiting at 10 o'clock this morning on the platform of the subway station at Lenox Avenue and East 125th Street with a sleepy two-year-old Gizowski in her arms, when a woman approached with an infant and asked if she wouldn't "take the baby for a minute."

At 12 o'clock Mrs. Gizowski went with the strange baby to the station agent. He sent her to the New York Foundling Asylum. At the Foundling Asylum it was said the baby would have to be committed by the court.

Early this afternoon the police accepted the child as a foundling and it will be sent to the foundling ward at Bellevue.

"I'd take him home with me," said Mrs. Gizowski, whose husband is a tailor at No. 519 West 126th Street, "but we have four already." She was the most absent-minded woman I ever saw in my life."

ALDERMEN DEMAND ACTION ON SCHOOL LUNCH PLANS

Order Immediate Conference With Board of Education—Women at Session to Hear Debate.

The $50,000 appropriated Jan. 1 by the Board of Estimate for school lunches for New York children and which has been lying idle, may soon be working industriously. Numerous complaints have been made that the Board of Education has unduly delayed supplying lunches. Alderman Collins prepared the following resolution, which was passed at to-day's meeting of the Board of Aldermen:

"Resolved: That the Committee on General Welfare be hereby instructed to arrange an immediate conference with members of the board of Education, with a view to securing such action as will put the proper school lunch system into operation promptly and expeditiously, and that this Board further requests the Board of Education to defer action on the adoption of such school lunch plans until such conference with the committee on general welfare has been had."

DOUBLE CABLE CENSORSHIP BY U. S. AND BRITAIN OFF

Single System to Be Abolished After Blockade Is Lifted.

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Double censorship of cablegrams is abolished under the terms of an agreement between the United States and Great Britain, made public to-day. The two countries agree that hereafter cable communication through the territory of either country will be subject only to the censorship of the country in which the message originates.

The United States, the announcement of the agreement said, desires to discontinue cable censorship entirely at the earliest possible moment, but "as long as the Allies consider it necessary to continue the blockade it will be necessary to continue the censorship." However, every modification consistent with the blockade will be made.

NASSAU JUDGES BITTERLY SCORED IN SENATE DEBATE

Bill to Prevent Service for B. R. T. Advanced After "Porch Climber" Charge.

(Special from Staff Correspondent of The Evening World.)
ALBANY, March 11.—During a debate on a bill by Senator Loring M. Black of Brooklyn which would prohibit the participation of County Judge Lewis J. Smith and Surrogate Leon D. Howell of Nassau County as B. R. T. lawyers in the trial growing out of the Malbone Street wreck, Senator Rose Graves of Buffalo declared the two Nassau officials resembled "porch climbers."

The Black Bill was advanced to order of final passage after it had been fought by Senator George L. Thompson of Kings Park. On the other hand, Senator George F. Thompson of Niagara fought to have the Black Bill advanced. It was seconded by Senator Burlingame of Brooklyn.

After Senator George L. Thompson had contended that judges under the statutes had a right to practice law off the bench, Senator Graves retorted:

"It seems to me that these judicial officers by their own conduct have forfeited any special privileges or consideration, and from the standpoint of a layman, and to me, they resemble a couple of porch climbers. They have outraged their professions, and their official position as administrators of justice."

Senator Davenport also attacked the situation in Nassau County. "It seems to me," he said, "that the judges have committed a great public indiscretion. It is up to us to protect the reputation of the Bench when those upon the Bench have so far forgotten themselves as to fail to protect it themselves."

Senator Thompson of Long Island sought to amend the bill so that it would not apply to the Nassau case. "All you want to do," he said, "is to delay the bill long enough to insure to these men their fees from the B. R. T."

"The hiring of these judges," declared Senator Burlingame, "is for one purpose only—that is to get the disagreement of one jurymen because of his acquaintance with one of the judicial officers serving as counsel. These judges do nothing except say 'Good morning to the jurymen when they come in at the beginning of a day and 'Good night' when they close in the afternoon."

"These judges," asserted Senator Black, "were hired solely as specialists in the 'Hello stuff.' These honest judges, elected to administer justice, are taking the county's money and the B. R. T.'s money while doing the work of the B. R. T."

"Why is it that this bill is aimed particularly at Nassau County?" asked Senator Thompson of Long Island.

"Because," replied Black, "Nassau County appears to be the only county that parades this sort of judicial inquiry."

GERMAN PUBLIC OPINION UPHELD RUTHLESS WAR

Von Bernstorff Says He Found This Sentiment and Blames It for Nation's Downfall.

BERLIN, March 11 (Associated Press).—Public opinion must become the real sovereign in Germany, but it must be enlightened opinion based upon democratic development and conscious of its great responsibility. This was the central idea of a speech by Count von Bernstorff, former German Ambassador to the United States at a meeting to organize "The Democratic Club."

The former Ambassador told his hearers that when he returned to Germany from the United States, he endeavored to learn why ruthless submarine warfare, which, he said, was responsible for Germany's downfall, was decided upon instead of the acceptance of a less severe course.

"The answer," he said, "was regularly that public opinion in Germany would not have suffered any other solution."

Urge to Holy See if Infidels test Palestine Control.

ROME, Monday, March 10.—During the course of his allocution at the consistory he held to-day Pope Benedict, in alluding to the future settlement of the Ottoman Empire, said:

"It would be a great grief to the Holy See if in Palestine the preponderating position were given to infidels, and a still greater grief if the holy places were given to a non-Christian power."
